

Conditions for candidacy for individuals

- 1- The candidate must have worked in the media or visual production sector for at least 3 years.
- 2- The candidate must have contributed in the field of visual production theoretically, consultative or practical
- 3- The candidate should take only one job in this course.
- 4- The candidate sends a detailed summary in Arabic as a single batch about the actual contribution to the production presented to the award and no further material is sent after that
- 5- The award management has the right to request any additional materials or any details or clarifications regarding the nominated work.
- 6- The visual works executed by the person wishing to run for the award must have been broadcast on one of the TV channels or digital platforms.
- 7- The work must have been completed and broadcasted or published during the period between January 2019 and June 2020.
- 8- The representing work must be verified and contain unquestionable sources
- 9- The committee reserves the right to demand any additional documents from the applicant if necessary and to reject any requests that do not contain all the supporting ones.
- 10- the work must not contain any content that offends modesty, violates religious beliefs, insults state symbols, or incites any political or racial orientation, directly or indirectly.
- 11- Master's and Ph.D. are not included in the mentioned nomination scale.
- 12-The applicant has the right to nominate more than one category of the award for the same work.
- 13-Applications that do not adhere to the conditions of the award, or those that arrive after the end of the nomination deadline, are not considered.

Conditions for candidacy for individuals

- 14- The award management has the right to dispose of all materials submitted by the candidate within the framework of the award.
- 15-The award administration entitled to ask the candidate to appear in any media show or say personal information about him or His participatory work for free within the general framework of the award's media plan.
- 16-The candidate is not entitled to be represented by any other party to receive the award on his behalf during the honoring ceremony.
- 17-All correspondence and information between the candidate and the award administration are confidential, that the candidate has no right to share with any other party or to publish it through any conventional or digital media.
- 18- Agreement to apply for candidacy and approval to all the conditions must be signed.
- 19-No candidate has the right to challenge the judging panel's decisions or claim any information that allocates evaluation results or how the award works.