

Conditions for candidacy Projects category:

1. The work nominated for the award should have been executed and broadcast on a TV channel or digital platform during the period between January 2019 and July 2020.
2. A detailed summary of the nominated work must be sent in one file only, and that the content of the file must be in Arabic, knowing that no additional file will be considered.
3. The person who submitted the work, whether it is an institution or an individual who possesses the intellectual rights for this work according to formal proof, is legally entitled to nominate the work to participate in the award.
4. The submitted work must be free of any unreliable content or depends on dubious sources.
5. The work must not contain any content that offends modesty, violates religious beliefs, insults state symbols, or incites any political or racial orientation, directly or indirectly.
6. The award management has the right to request any additional documents from the applicant if necessary and to reject any requests that do not contain all the supporting documents.
7. The submitted work respects the social customs, culture, and values of the United Arab Emirates.
8. The submitted work does not contain any immoral scenes or negatively affect economic, political or intellectual issues.
9. The submitted work must be convenient with all recognized professional standards and coincide in the visual content industry.
10. The submitted work must be completed or displayed on the visual platforms in the current year 2020 or in the second half of the year 2019.
11. The submitted work must be from one of the categories listed within the declared prize sections only.
12. Applications that do not adhere to the conditions of the award, or those that arrive after the end of the nomination deadline, should not be considered as the deadline for submitting applications ends on 01th November 2020.
13. Agreement to apply for candidacy and approval to all the conditions must be signed.
14. No candidate has the right to challenge the judging panel's decisions or to claim any information related to the evaluation results or how the award works.